

Industrial PC HIPC

sturdy | reliable | hygienic

Advantages

- Fully hygienic design
- Vibration resistant components suitable for industrial use
- Multitouch operation is possible when wearing safety gloves
- Dust and waterproof
- Completely passive cooling

The hygienic industrial PC

The Höfelmeyer Industrial PC HIPC offers you the highest level of hygiene together with convenient touch technology operation. It operates to the highest possible standard of reliability. Both standard software as well as a special Höfelmeyer program can be used. The HIPC can be controlled conveniently via a software program to set its brightness, to put it into cleaning mode and to shut it down.

Characteristics

- Compact hygienic design with just a few hygienic screws and food-safe silicone seals
- Homogeneous, closed stainless steel housing [IP65/IP69K] in V2A or V4A with bevelled edges
- Vibration resistant components suitable for industrial use with availability guaranteed for ten years

- The connections inside the holding system are accessible via a bayonet system
- Integrated features include WLAN, Bluetooth and an RFID reader
- The full HD (1920 x 1080) P-CAP multitouch display can also be operated when wearing gloves
- Wide range of system holders
- Lightweight system
- Temperature -30 to +50°C

Interfaces/network

- Ethernet: 2x 100/1000 Mbit
- USB port: 4x USB 2.0, 1x USB 3.0
- Extension slots: 2x PCI Express Mini, 1x SD-card slot

Extension cards

- 2x serial port (RS-23 dual CAN 2.0 port)

