

HTF210 weighing terminal

sturdy | reliable | durable

Advantages

- LCD display with background illumination
- Suitable for universal use
- Suitable for industrial applications
- Standard application
- User-friendly operation via industrial membrane keypad

For daily quality checks

The HTF210 weighing terminal is a sturdy evaluation unit in a stainless steel housing. It is straightforward to use and easy to clean. The HTF210 delivers reliable weighing results in the fields of incoming goods, shipping, production, warehouse management, and packaging.

Version

- As a wall-mounted, tabletop or built-in version in protection class IP 65
- Easily legible 20mm LCD plain text display, with background illumination
- 5 keys for zeroing, taring, printing, counting and special functions
- Powered via integrated 100-240V AC power supply
- Optionally 24V DC or 24V AC via internal or external battery pack
- Operating temperature: -10 to +40°C
- Made completely of stainless steel (1.4301)

	Serial interfaces (max. 2)
	RS 232	RS 485	RS 422
PC/network	2	2	2
Printer	2	2	2